

Acceptable Documents for a Wisconsin Driver License or Identification Card Application

BDS316 6/2024

When applying for an original (first) Wisconsin instruction permit, driver license or identification card (ID), you must provide acceptable documents showing:

- Proof of U.S. citizenship, legal permanent resident status, legal conditional resident status or legal presence in the U.S.
- Proof of your name and date of birth.
- Proof of identity.
- Proof of Wisconsin residency if you are 18 years of age or older (two proofs required for REAL ID compliant card).
- Provide Social Security number.
 - » If you are not eligible for a Social Security number, you must sign form MV3741, Social Security Number Non-Eligibility Certification Statement.

Information for all documents

- Documents presented as proof must be original. Photocopies are not acceptable.
- Documents with a photograph of a person will be accepted only when the person is readily recognizable from the photograph.
- The Department will decline to accept any document presented if it has reason to suspect the authenticity of the document.
- Questionable documents may require additional review.
- A valid document is one that is not expired.

Minimum stay requirements for temporary visitors (non-immigrants)

Legal presence documents must show a minimum stay of:

- More than 12 months total OR more than 6 months remaining at the time of application for a driver license.
- More than 6 months total OR more than 3 months remaining at the time of application for a ID card.

If you legally change your name, first update your name with the Social Security Administration and wait 48 hours before going to the DMV.

When you visit the DMV to change your name on your driver license or ID card, you must present proof of your name change.

Acceptable documents are:

- Certified marriage certificate
- Certified record of divorce
- Certified court order
- Valid unexpired U.S. passport issued in your current name

REAL ID driver license and ID card applicants

- If you present a valid, unexpired U.S. passport in your current name, you do not need to present documents to prove past name changes.
- If you do not present a valid, unexpired U.S. passport in your current name, you must present documents to prove each name change from birth to present.

Free ID and Identification Card Petition Process (IDPP)

Getting a free ID for voting is easy even if you do not have the documentation to get a regular Wisconsin ID!

- Go to the DMV to apply
- Bring the following, if available:
 - » Proof of Name and Date of Birth (such as birth certificate)
 - » Proof of Identity (Social Security card, Medicaid/Medicare card, etc.)
 - » Wisconsin Residency (Utility bill, government mail, lease, etc.)
 - » Proof of U.S. Citizenship (U.S. birth certificate or citizenship paperwork)
 - » Social Security Number
- If you don't have all or any of these, you can still get an ID for voting. Just bring what you have to the DMV, fill out 2 forms and you will get a photo ID document in the mail that you can use in time for voting.
- Once enrolled in IDPP, DMV will work with you to identify any remaining documents needed to continue with the verification of your application.
- Once your application materials are fully completed and DMV has verified your information, you will be issued a Wisconsin Identification card.
